

Springtime at the Beach Workshops

Presenter: Karol Liszczyk

English language

Title: Take your Passion and Make it Happen

Workshop Description:

(abbreviated workshop description will be available in the conference packet)

The ability to lead others is one of those intangible qualities that is tied to the ability to motivate and encourage. A leader guides people by providing an example of how things should be done. To motivate others, a leader has to be personally motivated. In my workshop, I will present how to increase one's motivation and develop the ability to motivate others.

The goal of the workshop is to learn how to increase self motivation and be more inspirational leader.

After the training participants will know:

- the mindset of highly motivated and successful people
- how to build motivating beliefs
- how to inspire other through leading by example
- how to be patient and therefore achieve long term success
- how to keep high motivation during inevitable rough periods

To achieve these results, the trainer will present the self motivation methods that are easy to apply in everyday life that can help participants be more effective in achieving one's goals.

Most people in leadership positions must learn how to be good leaders. If you focus on guiding, helping, and motivating others, you will be well on your way to becoming a leader anyone would be proud to follow. A company where the leaders are decisive, supportive, and lead by example is appealing to employees, and a good bet for being successful in the marketplace and in life..
