Full Biography:

(abbreviated biography will be available in the conference packet)

Margaret Jankowsky is a certified Intercultural Trainer. She has been working in this field for almost three decades. Margaret has lived in four countries: Ireland, where she was born, England, Bolivia, and currently, Germany. She speaks English, Spanish and German fluently.

Margaret's company is called Words Connect Worlds, representing the connection between language and culture. The focus of her training concept is presentations, communication, team building and leadership skills in an intercultural context. She is Chair of ANKO (Atlanta Nuremberg Committee), a Professional Member of the German Speakers Association, co-founder of Crossing Bridges (a transatlantic business network), founding member of BNI (Business Network International in Nuremberg), and founding member of three Toastmasters clubs. She is a former Division D Governor.

Springtime at the Beach Workshops

Margaret Jankowsky's motto is "One should not aim at being possible to understand, but at being impossible to misunderstand."

Barbara Hoerger is an American residing in Nuremberg, Germany. She uses the skills she has acquired at Toastmasters in her work as a home care nurse for the elderly, especially "persuasive speaking".

She is an active member of all four area clubs, 3 English and 1 German club. She is currently serving as Division D Governor and finds the diversity of the division so inspiring. She has conducted the Youth Leadership Program twice and mentored others in the program. She finds the Youth Leadership Program one of the most rewarding activities at Toastmasters.

"TeaM" ("Together everyone achieves More") is something she believes in for her Division.
